The ECLECTIC is issued on the first of every month. Each number contains 144 large octavo pages, on fine paper, nearly stitched, in green covers, with one or more beautiful Steel Partraits, by Sartain. The twelves and the heat is regulated with such precision that scarcely any skill or care is necessary to cook with about one half the time ordinarily required, and the heat is regulated with such precision that scarcely any skill or care is necessary to cook with about per fection. Meats are rousted thoroughly with the most desirable uniformity, and come from the to the table juicy and tender. Bread is baked with or without a hard crust, as desired, and will remain fresh and soft much longer than bread baked in other owns. Another very important advantage is, that the stove when cooking ordinarily gives out so little heat to the Surrounding air that it will not kindle friction matches laid upon it, so that in summer it scarcely have a stove when cooking ordinarily gives out so little heat to the doors, it will heat the room with about one-fourth the wood required by any stove in use.
